

Dr. Jürgen Danyel

Vita

2017-10.02.2021

Head of the ZZF library

2013-2017

Acting head of the ZZF library

since 2009

Head of the department "Contemporary History of the Media and Information Society"

since 2008

Deputy director

since 2003

Project leader of the project "Clio online/Modul Zeitgeschichte": development of an internet-portal for the contemporary historical research community funded by the DFG (German Research Foundation)

2001 bis 2008

Head of the department "Electronic specialist information and communication"

since 1996

Post-doctoral researcher at the Centre for Contemporary History

1993-2004

Member of the editorial team of Zeitschrift für Geschichtswissenschaft

1992-1995

Researcher at the Research Centre Contemporary Historical Studies. Project on both German states' dealing with National Socialism and resistance

1990-1991

Researcher at the Institute for German History Berlin. Research stay in the USA. Scholarship holder of the "Program for Younger East German Scholars. Research project on the resistance group Schulze-Boysen/Harnack ("Red Orchestra") at the German Resistance Memorial Center Berlin

1988-1989

Post-doctoral researcher at the Academy of Social Sciences on the history of the German resistance against National Socialism (biography Arvid Harnack)

1987

Doctorate degree with a dissertation on the Marx' conception of the individuum and its meaning for the sociological theory

1985-1987

Humboldt-University Berlin, postgraduate research programme Sociology

1980-1985

Humboldt University Berlin, Sociology (M.A.)

1959

born in Mariánské Lázně